

THE GAZETTE.

THURSDAY EVENING, NOV. 22, 1894.

SEES ROSES ALL THE YEAR.—"Give me the man that can tell a good joke and tell it well," said Captain "Bunch" McBee, superintendent of the Seaboard Air-Line, last night, as he put his two thumbs behind the armoles of his vest and dived back upon his heels like the cavalier of the old-time southern stripe that he is. "I love the man who never grows old, no matter how white his hair may be, nor how long his beard may grow while tarrying at Jericho," so to speak. Yes, give me the man that sees the sunshine in life, even if he does have to wear glasses to see common things with. A man is never older than his humor. Therefore, it is possible for some men to remain young until they die. Take a man like Pat Walsh, of Augusta, or Judge Falligant, of Savannah, or let us say, a man like our distinguished Judge Blackley—why they will never grow old. They are young men today. Judge Falligant can go to a banquet and do his full duty by the host, and make as bright and witty a speech as any man under the blue of southern skies. Pat Walsh can entertain a company of young men as well as serve the people of Georgia as Senator in the sober and august body of the United States Senate, which, by the way, is saying a good deal about Judge Blackley's delightful wit, his sense of its path or point as he advances in years. Such men as these postpone till a very late day singing "I Would Not Live Always." They see the sunset bloom every day of the world, whether it be summer or winter. They're all right, check!—Atlanta Constitution.

MEDICINAL.

Tired, Weak, Nervous Could Not Sleep.

Prof. L. D. Edwards, of Preston, Idaho, says: "I was all run down, weak, nervous and irritable through overwork. I suffered from brain fatigue, mental depression, etc. I became so weak and nervous that I could not sleep. I would arise tired, discouraged and blue. I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve and now everything is changed. I sleep soundly, I feel bright, active and ambitious. I can do more in one day now than I used to do in a week. For this great good I give Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve the sole credit. It cures."

Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at 25 cents per bottle, or it will be sent, prepaid, on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

SPINAL weakness easily cured by Dr. Miles' Nerve.
